"Who do you suppose will be Queen of the May this year?" Minnie asked Mickey.

"I don't know," replied Mickey, "but we'd better be thinking about it. How are we going to choose her?"

"I have an idea," said Minnie. "Why not make it a beauty contest?"

"I'd rather make it on a merit basis," Mickey replied. "Handsome is as handsome does, you know. Who do you think did the most for everyone this past year?"

"There's no thinking needed for that," smiled Minnie. "There's one person who is always helping somebody else . . ."

"Sounds like Grandma Duck," Mickey grinned. "But she will say one of you younger gals should be Queen of the May."

"Don't tell her about it until the last minute," put in Goofy. "Keep it a mystery."

"That's a wonderful idea!" exclaimed Mickey. "A Mystery Queen of the May!"

"And we can have a gold throne for the Queen up on the bandstand, too," said Goofy.

"Gold throne?" Clarabelle gasped.

"Shucks, I just meant to paint a chair with gold-colored paint," chuckled Goofy.

"This is wonderful," said Mickey. "I'm going to tell the editor of the newspaper about it. This could be a good story."

The very next day, Mickey went to town to see the editor of the local paper.

"Mickey, it sounds great." The editor was excited, too. "But how about running it as a contest, to see who has done the most for the community during the past year? That person shall be the Mystery Queen of the May. Grandma Duck will surely win.

"We'll make this a civic enterprise, charge admission, and turn over the proceeds to the summer camp for poor children. The merchants will be glad to donate prizes to the Queen, too. How about it?"

"When do we start?" Mickey asked eagerly.

"There'll be a story in tomorrow's paper about choosing a Mystery Queen and telling how everyone can vote," the editor promised. "I'm sure it will go over big."

And go over big it did. The park was crowded to capacity on May Day. When Grandma Duck arrived, she thought she was going to a picnic with all her friends.

"This is real nice," said Grandma Duck. "I needed some relaxation. But, my, why are so many people here? I never knew the park to be so crowded before."

"Don't you read the paper?" Minnie asked.

"I've been too busy," Grandma Duck said. "I've been making some clothes for the Bear children. Theirs were right shaggy."

"Always helping somebody, aren't you, Grandma Duck?" said Clarabelle.

"Shhh! They're counting the ballots," said Mickey. "Who is it to be . . . ?"

"GRANDMA DUCK!" the name came over the loudspeaker. There was a burst of applause!

"Land sakes! They can't mean me!" Grandma Duck exclaimed, as the Mayor came to escort her to her golden throne.

"We were all pulling for you from the start," smiled the Mayor.

"We're sure glad you won, Grandma," said Minnie.

"You always do such kind things for others," echoed Mickey. "It's high time we showed you how we appreciate it."

"Yup," Goofy added. "We figured you'd be the Mystery Queen this year, so it was no mystery to us. But a mystery should be a mystery to someone. I guess this time, that someone had to be you."

SOMEBODY DUMPED BOULDERS DOWN ON US FROM THE CLIFF WHILE WE WERE COMING UP THIS CHANNEL IN AN OUT-RIGGER!

WE CAME HERE TO THE VALLEY OF THE LOST TO FIND OUT WHO'S BEEN STEALING PINEAPPLES FROM TOM KANAKANUI'S PLANTATION UP ABOVE! AT FIRST WE THOUGHT YOU LITTLE PEOPLE D.D. IT!

PINEAPPLES ARE MENEHUNES' FAVORITE MEAL. BUT WE STARVE BEFORE WE STEAL!

OKAY! OKAY! I APOLOGIZE! I DIDN'T MEAN IT!

WE'RE SURE THAT SOME BIG CROOK-TYPE PEOPLE STOLE THEM AND PUT THE BLAME ON YOU LITTLE PEOPLE!

BUT WHY?

THAT SPOIL OUR GOOD NAME AND BRING US ONLY GRIEF AND SHAME!

I DON'T KNOW WHY, BUT THERE'S MORE AT STAKE HERE THAN SOME STOLEN PINE-APPLES!

MANY PINEAPPLES COME DOWN IN STREAM! WE EAT THEM, NOT KNOWING IT PART OF SCHEME!

SO THEY STOLE THEM AND JUST THREW THEM OVER THE WATERFALL!

TOM'S WORKERS HAVE ALL LEFT BECAUSE THEY THINK HIS PLANTATION IS TABU! HE MIGHT HAVE TO MOVE AWAY, TOO, IF HIS CROP ISN'T PICKED!

WHAT DO YUH MEAN?

THESE ARE RARE HAWAIIAN CEREMONIAL FEATHER CLOAKS! THEY'RE FABULOUSLY VALUABLE!

WHAT HAVE YOU DONE WITH THEM?

WE TOOK CARE OF 'EM IN THE VALLEY OF THE LOST! TROUBLE IS, SOONER OR LATER, SOMEBODY MIGHT FIND 'EM AND START ASKING QUESTIONS! BUT IF YOU'RE NOT AROUND, IT WON'T MAKE MUCH DIFFERENCE, WILL IT?

G-GAWRSH! WH-WHUT'LL WE DO? THEY GOT GUNS!

WE HAVEN'T TIME TO GO FOR THE POLICE! WE'LL HAVE TO SPOOK 'EM!

WHO 'EM?

OH, IT'S A WELL-KNOWN STORY IN THESE PARTS!

THE OLD CHIEF SENT HIS SERVANTS TO HIDE THE CLOAKS! EVERYONE WAS LOST IN THE STORM, AND THE LOCATION OF THE CAVE WAS LOST...UNTIL NOW!... AND BELIEVE ME, YOU'RE GOING TO BE REWARDED...BUT HANDSOMELY!

AW, WE DON'T WANT ANY REWARD!

NAW!

WAIT...I TAKE IT BACK! WE'LL TAKE THE REWARD IN PINEAPPLES!

PINEAPPLES? WHY, YOU'D HAVE TO RENT A BOAT TO LUG THAT MANY PINE-APPLES BACK TO THE MAINLAND!
